Dear Colleagues,

I am proud to announce the launch of the Journal “Invasive Physiotherapy and Musculoskeletal Medicine”, a groundbreaking peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the advancement of our field. Our inaugural issue will be published in January 2025, marking a new era in the dissemination of pioneering research and innovative clinical practices.

As the Editor-in-Chief, I am honored to lead this initiative, which aspires to become a cornerstone in the world of invasive physiotherapy and musculoskeletal health. Our commitment is to publish high-quality original research and systematic reviews, ensuring that our readers have access to the most rigorous and impactful scientific discoveries. For the first year, we will focus exclusively on these two types of submissions to maintain the highest standards of scholarly excellence and relevance.

I feel incredibly fortunate to have the support of esteemed colleagues such as Dr. Skorupska, Dr. Ansari, Dr. Bubnov, Dr. Santafe, and Dr. Naghdi as part of our editorial team. Their expertise and dedication will undoubtedly propel our journal to international recognition and contribute significantly to its success. Their involvement exemplifies our commitment to global collaboration and excellence.

We are thrilled to embrace a bilingual approach, accepting and publishing articles in both English and Spanish. This initiative reflects our unwavering dedication to fostering a more inclusive and diverse scientific community, breaking down language barriers, and expanding the global reach of valuable research.

“Invasive Physiotherapy and Musculoskeletal Medicine” is now open for submissions, and we warmly invite researchers, clinicians, and academicians from around the world to share their groundbreaking work with us. By contributing to our journal, you become part of a vibrant platform dedicated to advancing knowledge, promoting innovation, and enhancing patient care in our field.

I invite you to visit our website at <https://invasivephysiotherapy.com> to explore our submission guidelines and discover the resources we have prepared for our prospective authors. Let us unite our efforts to propel the growth and development of invasive physiotherapy and musculoskeletal medicine, ultimately transforming patient outcomes and advancing our profession.

Join us on this exciting journey. Together, we can make “Invasive Physiotherapy and Musculoskeletal Medicine” a leading voice in the field. We eagerly await your contributions and look forward to collaborating with you.

With passion and commitment
